FAQs for Parent Volunteer Program (PVP)

1. How can I earn Parent Volunteer Program hours?

There are opportunities to earn PVP hours during the school day, in the evenings, or on weekends. PVP hours can be earned on campus, on field trips, or from home. Any time spent assisting a teacher, a support staff member, or an administrator qualifies for PVP.

2. What activities do NOT apply to PVP hours?

Participating in fundraising activities, purchases, or 'in-kind' donations do not qualify for PVP hours

EXAMPLES:

Purchases or in-kind donations do not count toward hours, but giving your time does. Attending a school function does not count towards hours, but working the event does.

3. How can I find opportunities for more hours?

Start by staying connected to your student's teachers. Ask office personnel and search the calendar for additional opportunities.

4. What are Saturday Service Days?

Our Saturday Service Days offer families the opportunity to earn DOUBLE PARENT VOLUNTEER HOURS while helping our Facilities Staff with campus maintenance and beautification. Generally, there is one Saturday Service Day per month.

5. How do I keep track of my hours?

PVP Hour Tally Cards are available for you to complete in the office.

6. When are the hours due?

PVP hours are normally due one week before school ends. Please check your PVP Hour Tally Card for specific dates. Late recordings are charged $25 or 2.5 hours.

7. What if I don't fulfill the required PVP Hours by the due date?

Incomplete hours will be billed to family accounts at $10 per hour.
